

UUUCP News

Unitarian Universalist Church of the Palouse

March
2010

PO Box 9342 420 E. 2nd Street, Moscow, ID 83843 Issue Date: March 1, 2010 Volume #61, Issue #2 Issued Monthly

In This Issue

March Sunday Services.....	1
UUUCP Mission Statement	1
From the Pastor's Pad	2
UUUCP Service Auction April 10	2
Update from the President.....	3
Creating the Church of the Future w/Michael Durall	3
In the Family	4
2010 Board of Trustees	4
UUUCP Library	4
Homes Needed - Kayle's Kitties	4
Social Action Committee News.	5
Purple Paisley Quilters' News ...	5
UUUCP Music Notes.....	6
Help for Haiti	6
March Calendar.....	7
Dates to Remember	8
UUUCP Mah Jongg	8
UU Retirees' Luncheon.....	8
March RE Birthdays.....	8
UUUCP Office Closed Spring Brk	8
UUUCP Staff Information	8
From the Director of Religious Education.....	9
Attn High School Seniors.....	9
News from the Yellow House..	10
Habitat for Humanity	10
Hearts for Haiti.....	10
O.W.L. Program.....	10
RE Registration Reminder	10
Surprise Pals.....	11
Passover/Easter Canned Food Drive.....	11
Beans 'n' Jeans March 27	11
Friends of Hospice Community Grief Support Group	11
Common Ministry Auction	11
UUUCP Mail/Email Information	12
Service Auction Form	insert

March 7, 10:00 am

Justice Sunday—Theology of the Hammer

Speakers: Brent Bradberry, President of Palouse Habitat for Humanity, and David Coahran & Jimmi Meed, Long time Habitat volunteers & Quakers

Celebrant: Donna Bradberry

See how one person's compassion and creativity combined and produced amazing actions that inspired others to help "do something" about the lack of safe and affordable housing in communities here and around the world. It will make you want to pick up "the hammer" and hit that first nail! After the Service: To get more information about Palouse Habitat activities right here on the Palouse please join us 10 minutes or so after the service, grab your coffee, and meet us in the Sanctuary. Sue Ritter, PH Church Relations Committee chair, will give an informational "power point" session and will answer any questions you may have.

March 14, 10:00 am

The Almost Church Revitalized

Speaker: Rev. Kayle Rice

Celebrant: Terry Grieb

The book of this title has been given to as many parishioners as possible in preparation for author Michael Durall's visit in two weeks. Rev. Kayle will point out some of the key points of the book as well as challenge the congregation in rethinking our "glowing coal". Does the Mission Statement below adequately describe UUUCP?

March 21, 10:00 am

Looking for Spiritual Role Models: Mary Magdalene in the South of France

Speaker: Dr. Sharon Kehoe

Celebrant: Martha Schmidt

Was Magdalene a prostitute, or the "Apostle to the Apostles", or the companion of Jesus, the mother of Sarah "the Gypsy Queen"? Did she teach the disciples as it says in the gospel attributed to her? Did she evangelize France as the Provençal people remember, whether they are Christian or not? Dr. Sharon Kehoe will share her research from the legends and art that she found in southern France over two summers.

March 28, 10:00 am

The UU Church of the Future

Speaker: Michael Durall

Celebrant: Rev. Kayle Rice

Wrapping up his visit with UUUCP leaders, members, and friends, Michael will share his observations of UUUCP. How can we become the UU Church of the Future? Please stay after the service for an additional 30 minutes for concluding remarks by Michael.

UUUCP Mission Statement

We are a caring community dedicated to the free and open search for spiritual, intellectual, and emotional growth.

We value the natural environment and respect the interdependence of all life.

We aspire to provide a welcoming home to all who join us in pursuing justice, tolerance, and compassion, with respect to the inherent worth and dignity of every person.